Fairfax Library (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

THE ARCTIC IN FICTION AND REALITY

Albemarle (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

The Arctic has long been a source of inspiration in the world of fiction. But the Arctic is also a region of great significance for real people in the real world. So... How has the Arctic been portrayed in fiction historically and is that portrayal changing today? Evan Ratke will share his studies of the real people and places that have captured our collective imagination.

THE HALFLING AND THE SPACEMAN PODCAST: COSPLAYER EDITION

Buckingham (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Join us for the recording of a new episode where we interview some of the RavenCon guests.

Featuring: Jenna Hamrick, Tori Kitsune,

Mourning Dove Cosplay, Smashbcosplay

LAUGHTER MATTERS

King William (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

The panelists will discuss some of their favorite comedic science fiction and fantasy novels, why we need comedy, why writing comedy is so difficult, and what types of humor age well (or don't).

Panelists: Samantha Bryant, Ken Schrader, Fraser Sherman, Michael A. Ventrella (M), T. Kingfisher/Ursula Vernon

MEET THE ROOKERY (KIDS' TRACK)

Norfolk Boardroom (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Have fun learning what a rookery is and why we have one here at RavenCon.

PURPLE PROSE

Henry (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

What makes purple prose purple? What if purple prose is your favorite? Are adjectives and adverbs really evil? When description-heavy prose fails and when it wins.

Panelists: Cassandra Rose Clarke, L. Ana Ellis, John G. Hartness, Gail Z. Martin/Morgan Brice (M)

READING: JENNIFER BRINN & PATRICK DUGAN

Richmond Boardroom (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

WORKSHOP: 10 WAYS TO LEVEL-UP YOUR COSPLAY

Spotsylvania (Madison) – 50 minutes

What skill set do you need to cosplay successfully? Are you brand new to cosplay and don't know where to begin? Join

Lena Volkova as she draws from her many years of experience as a professional costumer and shares the essential skills every cosplayer needs as well as tips on what to avoid.

CONCERT: GRAY RINEHART

The Glen Restaurant (Madison) – 50 minutes

Gray primarily writes "filk"—music inspired by science fiction and fantasy—though he has also written about other things. Some of his songs are silly, some are serious, and some are just strange.

Grand Staircase (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Join our photographers in the Jefferson lobby for a fun photo shoot that will include shots on the Grand Staircase and in the RavenCon photo-op area. Cosplayers and non-staff photographers are all welcome.

FRIDAY 5:00 PM

READING: STEPHEN J. SIMMONS & PHILLIP POURNELLE

Fairfax Library (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

WRITING A SERIES

Dinwiddie (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

How do you plan a series? What are the secrets to writing a first book that is both self-contained and also a gateway for more books? How do you set up conflicts for future books that haven't even been plotted out yet?

Panelists: Samantha Bryant (M), Les Carter, D.A. Godwin, Dennis M. Myers, Sidney Williams

THAT PERSONAL SPIN

Buckingham (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

What inspires us as cosplayers to take beloved characters and make them our own? We discuss the personal twists you can take on all your cosplays that tell the world they're yours.

Panelists: Chiki Cosplay (M), Katelyn Addiele Law Sarver, Second Mourning Cosplay (Scott & Wednesday Mourning)

NERDIQUETTE 2ND EDITION:

CON BEHAVIOR FOR THE 2020S

King William (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

In the early '00s, we tried to help women feel more secure at conventions. Now our panelists will expand on that concept and try to help more people feel comfortable by drawing attention to some of what might make other fans (and pros) feel uncomfortable and discuss what we can do to help.

Panelists: Janet Carden, James Fulbright (M), Mike Mollman, Joey Starnes, Leona R. Wisoker

KNITTING & CROCHETING IN FANDOM 101 (KIDS' TRACK)

Norfolk Boardroom (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

What do knitting and crocheting have to do with being a fan? Want to learn how, or perhaps just find a quiet place to knit that Doctor Who scarf or Cthulhu mask? Come join us!

MINOR CHARACTERS

Henry (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Do your minor characters take over the scene? Or do you have the opposite problem where they all seem the same? Learn the tricks of the trade that help writers populate their fiction with believable, interesting supporting characters that don't overwhelm the main characters.

Panelists: Gail Z. Martin/Morgan Brice, Cass Morris, J.E. Pittman (M), Katika Schneider

READING: SARA T. BOND & L. ANA ELLIS

Richmond Boardroom (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

INDIE PUBLISHING VS. SELF-PUBLISHING

King George (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

For whatever reason, you're not going with a big publisher. So, which is the right option for you? Do you go with an independent small publishing house or do you self-publish? Each has their pros and cons and our authors will spell them out for you.

Panelists: Cassandra Rose Clarke (M), Patrick Dugan, Venessa Giunta, Logan D. Irons

ENTER THE FLANAVERSE

Brunswick (Madison) – 50 minutes

No, the various horror shows and movies aren't connected. Yes, it's just a marketing ploy by Netflix to drive interest in the works of Mike Flanagan. But... Flanagan's works DO feature recurring themes and motifs and he has a pool of actors that appear frequently in his projects. So, why not? Let's call it a connected universe! Now... discuss...

Panelists: James Fadeley (M), Sean Gleeson

SO, YOU WANNA 3-D PRINT?

Spotsylvania (Madison) – 50 minutes

Are you looking to get into 3-D printing and need some more information before you take the leap? Come find out about different kinds of printers, materials, techniques, and the lessons learned from someone in the hobby.

Presenter: Carrie Jo Patton

CONCERT: ANGELA PRITCHETT

The Glen Restaurant (Madison) – 50 minutes

CON STORIES: THE GAME SHOW!

Brunswick (Madison) – 90 minutes
Whatever con we're at, all the old-timers get together on a panel and tell their favorite con stories—the good, the bad, and the freakin' weird. This time, though, it's a competition! You won't want to miss this one.
Host: Michael D. Pederson
Contestants: James Fulbright, Bishop O'Connell, Jean Marie Ward

USING MUSIC TO ENHANCE YOUR WRITING (AND READING)

Spotsylvania (Madison) – 90 minutes
This interactive workshop will help writers of all levels to improve their writing through the use of music. Learn how listening to certain styles and tempos create innate rhythms in your stories, from descriptions to dialogue. Exercises with hand drums and guitar will give a hands-on experience and produce results. Presented by a psychologist/professor/author who has given music therapy workshops in several states. All are welcome as this science transcends genre. Personal plans can be developed with attendees both during the session and through correspondence afterwards.

Presenter: David Simms

CONCERT: ASYLUM 213

The Glen Restaurant (Madison) – 50 minutes

Asylum 213 have taken the east coast and surrounding regions by storm, garnering notoriety for their chaotic, high-energy, jaw-dropping, and unpredictable live performances.

TOUR THE ART SHOW!

Powhatan (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Join Artist Heidi Hooper as she discusses the art and artists in the RavenCon Art Show.

FRIDAY 9:00 PM

HOW DO YOU SANELY GOVERN A MULTI-PLANET SYSTEM?

Dinwiddie (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Science fiction is full of stories of rebellious colonies (e.g. The Moon is a Harsh Mistress, The Expanse). Is that the natural outcome of colonizing the solar system or is there a form of governance that can overcome massive distances, communications delays, and dependence on people and resources from the home planet?

Panelists: James Gaines, John Gaines (M), Gray Rinehart, Ken Schrader

ETHICS IN COSPLAY: CONSENT, CREDIT, AND CULTURE

Buckingham (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

An important discussion on the ethics of cosplay—focusing on consent for photos, crediting original creators and designers, and navigating cultural appropriation respectfully. This panel aims to promote a more inclusive, respectful, and mindful cosplay community.

Panelists: Diebreado & Sikecoz (M), Katelyn Addiele Law Sarver, Second Mourning Cosplay (Amythest & Pattycakes)

THE OLDEST FAIRY-TALE:

“THE SMITH AND THE DEVIL”

Albemarle (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

“The Smith and the Devil” is an often-forgotten and overlooked fairytale. However, linguists and archaeologists now believe it is the oldest recorded folk story in history. This makes the character of The Smith the oldest magical being. Tales of The Smith indicate that he has immense power. Join a professional archaeologist and explore the linguistic and archaeological evidence for The Smith’s origins and age.

Presenter: Dr. Dea Mozingo-Gorman

STAR WARS: WHAT’S NEXT?

King William (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Skywalkers, Obi-wan, Ashoka, Boba Fett... has Disney been too hung up on old and familiar characters? Upcoming projects seem to be moving the Star Wars universe into new directions. The Acolyte is going to be a mystery. Skeleton Crew will be kid-focused. There’s an untitled movie being developed in a new era called the New Jedi Order and another one being set in the distant past. Are we excited to see something new?

Panelists: Sammie Cassell, Sean Gleeson (M), Joey Starnes

D&D WITH DUNGEON MASTER TOM (KIDS’ TRACK)

WHAT EVERYONE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT ASTRONOMY

Albemarle (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

Astronomy is generally considered to be the oldest field of science. It allowed us to know when to plant and harvest crops, ultimately gave us the calendar, helped us to understand the movements of the tides, and eventually to navigate the Earth. Although most people remain naturally drawn to the stars, few are literate in even the basics. Dr. Ben Davis takes his best shot at correcting that in just under an hour.

WHAT EVERY EDITOR WISHED AUTHORS KNEW

King William (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

At some point in your writing career chances are you are going to work with an editor, but many authors know next to nothing about the field of editing. Copyeditors, acquisition editors, managing editors, line editors, developmental editors... What do they all do? How do you know what kind of editor you need? How do you find a good editor? How do you work with an editor of a magazine, anthology, or publishing house? Everything you need to know but were afraid to ask.

SATURDAY 8:00 PM

MCU: PHASE 5

Buckingham (Jefferson) – 50 minutes

We're halfway through a poorly received Phase 5 with three more movies still coming out. If the Infinity Saga was the MCU's Golden Age and Phase 6's Fantastic Four will hopefully launch their Silver Age (mirroring what happened in the 1960s) does that mean that we're currently in the Dark Ages of the 1950s when nobody wanted superhero stories? Is the Multiverse Saga just too weird for the general public? What's going to happen with Kang? Have the stories become too complicated to follow without having seen every show on Disney+?

Panelists: Sammie Cassell (M), Sean Gleeson, Nickie Jamison, Phillip Pournelle

THE SCIENCE OF PEOPLE

WORKSHOP: STRONG STORIES NEED STRONG HEROES

Spotsylvania (Madison) – 2 hours

Compelling heroes are the centerpiece of successful stories. They're not just carried along by the plot—they drive the plot. They demand the reader's attention and drag them on a journey. If your heroes aren't doing that, then this is the workshop for you. This group collaborative session will teach you a multi-layered approach to crafting a compelling, memorable hero. During the character-building exercises, you'll also learn how to build a meaningful character arc for your hero that you can leverage for your story's plot. (Max 20 participants.)
